

Hellas Rally 2019 News 3 January

Bivouac

This year the rally will have a real bivouac. Laying outside the village of Karpenissi the bivouac is 50.000m2 with all necessary sanitary facilities and catering with low cost all day food supply.

A bar and a Rally Cinema will be available also for the competitors every night.
For those who participate and need a presentation for their adventures in the RedBull cinema, please let us know. Many surprises to follow

The bivouac has enormous space for camping free of charge with electricity and water and is ideal for those who want to live the 2019 edition as a real adventure.

All starts and finishes are in the bivouac.

The bivouac will host also the Head Quarters of the race and all briefings will be held in the same area. More info <https://hellasrally.org/bivouac/>

Information – Briefings

Main Briefings will in english every day.

Written copies of the briefings and roadbook modifications will also be published on:

- Notice boards in the bivouac
- Notice boards in the center of Karpenissi
- Notice boards in each hotel where competitors will stay
- On line on Facebook page of Hellas Rally
- On line on web site of Hellas Rally
- On line on mobile web site of Hellas Rally (ios & android compatible)

Written copies of briefings will be published in 5 languages:

- English
- French
- Italian
- Spanish
- German

Tracking

SSV and European championship participants with bikes and quads will use Stella EVO3 system which requires power from the vehicle and the installation of a bracket.

More info here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QFRGqQMBZTs&t=164s>

https://web.facebook.com/juliocabreira/posts/2565415043474823?comment_id=2567043853311942&reply_comment_id=2567579826591678¬if_id=1548590316868256¬if_t=mentions_comment

The rest of the participants will have a portable tracker with battery that requires no extra installation.

Stella 3 will have the speed limit warning function disabled.

The cost of Stellas is 120euros for the race and requires an installation kit of 75 euros once off payment

Accommodation

For bookings please contact Karpenissi.hotels@gmail.com

<https://hellasrally.org/accommodation/>

Ferry Transportation and discount

As every year Hellas Rally 2019 will provide a 40% discount to all participants, followers and teams on the ferry line from Ancona and Bari.

<https://hellasrally.org/ferry-transportation/> please visit here for detailed info

GPS devices

All participants are allowed to have GPS devices of their own for safety reasons and use as compass in the off road parts of the rally. The use of a gps device is not obligatory.

Tripmasters with GPS receivers are allowed.

Electronic Roadbooks

All electronic roadbook devices are allowed. The organization will provide a PDF version of the roadbook each day before briefing.

Adventure Raid

2019 edition will be different

For the upcoming edition adventure raid participants will have their own orga team supporting them. Separate briefings with focus on their needs, separate routes but common photopoints and a very thorough verification of the routes before the event is the add on we will provide.

Medical support

Live tracking and two safety riders as usual will be assisting the participants and the media team will be available specially for them.

SSV Mediterranean Cup – FIM European Championship

Hellas Rally will be the 2nd round of the Mediterranean Cup for SSV and second round of the FIM European Championship.

Activities for friends and families

We are working with the local authorities to provide a vast array of activities for visitors and your families visiting the rally.

- Outdoor (trekking, Mbiking, rafting)
- Cultural trips (Delphi, Meteora etc)
- Local products, cooking and wine tasting
- and many more to be announced soon

Ceremonies

- back to its tradition Hellas Rally will start with a ceremonial presentation of the participants in front of thousands of spectators along with locals.
- A big party is organised in the Bivouac after the award ceremony with live music, lots of drinks in the bar, campfires all over the area and many more surprises that will be announced soon.